HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND Hoofland's German Tonic.

The Great Remedies for all Diseases of the LIVER, STOMACH, OR DIGESTIVE ORGANS.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS

Is composed of the pure juices (or, as they are medically termed, Extracts,) of Roots, Herbs, and Barks, making a preparation, highly concentrated, and entirely free from alcoholic admixture of any kind.

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC,

Is a combination of all the ingredients of the Bitters, with the purest quality of Santa Cruz Rum, Orange, &c., making one of the most pleasant and agreeable remedies ever offered to the public.

Those preferring a Medicine free from Alcoholic admixture, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS.

Those who have no objection to the combination of the bitters, as stated, will use

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN TONIC.

They are both equally good, and contain the same medicinal virtues, the choice between the two being a mere matter of taste, the Tonic being the most palatable.

The stomach, from a variety of causes, such as Indigestion, Dyspepsia, Nervous Debility, etc, is very apt to have its functions deranged. The Liver, sympathizing as closely as it does with the stomach, then becomes affected, the result of which is that the patient suffers from several or more of the following diseases:

Constipation, Flatulence, Inward Piles, Fulness of Blood to the Head, Acidity of the Stomach, Nausea, Heartburn, Disgust for Food, Fulness or Weight in the Stomach, Sour Eructations, Sinking or Fluttering at the Pit of the Stomach, Swimming of the Head, Hurried or Difficult Breathing, Fluttering at the Heart, Choking or Suffocating Sensations when in a lying posture, Dimness of Vision, Dots or Webs before the Sight, Dull Pain in the Head, Deficiency of Perspiration, Yellowness of the Skin and Eyes, Pain in the Side, Back, Chest, Limbs, etc., Sudden Flushes of Heat, Burning in the Flesh, Constant Imaginings of Evil, and Great Depression of Spirits.

The sufferer from these diseases should exercise the greatest caution in the selection of a remedy for his case, purchasing only that which he is assured from his investigations and inquiries possesses true merit, is skillfully compounded, is free from injurious ingredients, and has established for itself a reputation for the cure of these diseases. In this connection we would submit these well known remedies—

HOOFLAND'S GERMAN BITTERS AND

Prepared by DR. C. M. JACKSON, PHILADELPHIA, PA.

Twenty-two years since they were first introduced into this country from Germany, during which time they have undoubtedly performed more cures, and benefited suffering humanity to a greater extent, than any other remedies known to the public.

These remedies will effectually cure Liver Complaint, Jaundice, Dyspepsia, Chronic or Nervous Debility, Chronic Diarrhœa, Disease of the Kidneys, and all Diseases arising from a disordered Liver, Stomach, or Intestines.

DEBILITY,

Resulting from any Cause whatever; PROSTRATION OF THE SYSTEM, induced by Severe Labor, Hardships, Exposure, Fevers, &c.

There is no medicine extant equal to these remedies in such cases. A tone and vigor is imparted to the whole system, the appetite is strengthened, food is enjoyed, the stomach digests promptly, the blood is purified, the complexion becomes sound and healthy, the yellow tinge is eradicated from the eyes, a bloom is given to the cheeks, and the weak and nervous invalid becomes a strong and healthy being.

PERSONS ADVANCED IN LIFE,

And feeling the hand of time weighing heavily upon them, with all its attendant ills, will find in the use of this BITTERS, or the TONIC, an elixir that will instil new life into their veins, restore in a measure the energy and ardor of more youthful days, build up their shrunken forms, and give health and happiness to their remaining years.

NOTICE.

It is a well established fact that fully one half of the female portion of our population are seldom in the enjoyment of good health; or, to use their own expression, never feel well. They are languid, devoid of all energy, extremely nervous, and have no appetite.

To this class of persons the BITTERS, or the TONIC, is especially recommended.

WEAK AND DELICATE CHILDREN,

Are made strong by the use of either of these remedies. They will cure every case of MARASMUS, without fail.

Thousands of certificates have accumulated in the hands of the proprietor, but space will allow of the publication of but a few. Those, it will be observed, are men of note and of such standing that they must be believed.

TESTIMONIALS.

Yours, truly, GEO. W. WOODWARD."

Judge of the Supreme Court of Pennsylvania. Philadelphia, April 28, 1866.

"I consider 'Hoofland's German Bitters' a valuable medicine in case of attacks of Indigestion or Dyspepsia. I can certify this from my experience of it. Yours, with respect, JAMES THOMPSON."

FROM REV. JOSEPH H. KENNARD, D. D.,

Pastor of the Tenth Baptist Church, Philadelphia.

Dr. Jackson—Dear Sir: I have been frequently requested to connect my name with recommendations of different kinds of medicines, but regarding the practice as out of my appropriate sphere, I have in all cases declined; but with a clear proof in various instances and particularly in my own family, of the usefulness of Dr. Hoofland's German Bitters, I depart for once from my usual course, to express my full conviction that, for general debility of the system, and especially for Liver Complaint, it is a safe and valuable preparation. In some cases it may fail; but usually, I doubt not, it will be very beneficial to those who suffer from the above causes.

FROM REV. E. D. FENDALL.

Assistant Editor Christian Chronicle, Philadelphia.

I have derived decided benefit from the use of Hoofland's German Bitters, and feel it my privilege to recommend them as a most valuable tonic, to all who are suffering from general debility or from diseases arising from derangement of the liver.

Yours truly, E. D. FENDALL.

THE TRUTH.

General Meredith, the United States Commissioner for Exchange of Prisoners, Disproves the Rebel Ould's late Slanders.

[From the Buffalo Commercial Advertiser Aug. 26.]

We are fortunately able to interpose a prompt and absolute denial of all Mr. Ould's material statements of facts, coming from a source at once disinterested and unquestionable. Brigadier-General S. A. Meredith, whose military record during the war stands deservedly high, and who is now sojourning in our city, was for many months on duty near Richmond as United States Commissioner for the exchange of prisoners. He was in constant communication with Mr. Ould in regard to this very business. The official correspondence between them is now before us, and fully corroborates what General Meredith says. Up to the time when he was relieved by General Butler, and ordered to another field of service, General Meredith speaks of his own personal knowledge. Since that time he has had a very natural interest in the subject, and has kept himself thoroughly posted. He voluntarily furnishes us with the following statement, which, to our mind, very effectually demolishes Mr. Ould's statement, and convicts him of partisan duplicity, if not of absolute falsification:

GENERAL MEREDITH'S STATEMENT.

Editors Buffalo Commercial Advertiser:—My attention has been called to a sensation story published in the New York World, entitled "A Terrible Revelation," purporting to be a statement of Robert Ould concerning the exchange of prisoners. Were the matter not so serious, the reasons given by this noble patriot for publishing his romance might be considered the best joke of the season, to wit:—"To correct the many misrepresentations of the late Confederate authorities in relation to prisoners," and "that he feels it due to the truth of history, to bring the facts set forth to the attention of the country."

When an unrepentant traitor like Robert Ould has the unblushing impudence to attempt to impose on Northern freemen his vindication of the "truth of history," as connected with the late rebellion, or the treatment of our soldiers, intentionally starved and slaughtered in rebel pens, I also feel it incumbent on me (as he remarks) to "make a statement."

The first interruption of the cartel was caused by Jeff. Davis' message to the rebel Congress, January 12, 1863, wherein he announced his determination to deliver all officers of the United States captured after that date, to the State authorities, to be dealt with according to the laws of those States, providing for the punishment of criminals engaged in inciting servile insurrection." That is, our officers captured in battle were to be handed over to the State authorities to be hanged.

The second difficulty occurred in relation to negro troops, and the officers commanding them, whom the Rebel authorities promised to treat in the same manner, but without taking the trouble to deliver them to the State authorities. In many instances no quarter was granted to that class of troops, or to the officers commanding them. Some were executed without trial, though that mere form would not have benefitted them in the slightest degree.

When, in August, 1863, I demanded that negro troops and their officers should be treated as other prisoners of war, and exchanged, this "vindicator of the truth" peremptorily declined, with this remark:—"We (the rebels) will die in the last ditch before giving up the right to send slaves back to slavery."

Another cause of the suspension of the cartel was its constant violation by the Rebels, in making illegal declarations of exchange, for the purpose of putting men into the field; and there is no doubt whatever that all prisoners paroled by the United States authorities were immediately returned to active duty in the Rebel army. Many officers and men captured at Vicksburg were in the battle of Chickamauga. Thus the Rebels were making use of our well-conducted prisons as recruiting depots for their army.

Another insuperable obstacle to returning exchanges was in the matter of paroles. Mr. Ould had some eighteen or twenty thousand which he claimed as valid. Most, if not all, of these paroles were taken by guerillas, bushwhackers, and detached commands in the West. No possession was ever had, no delivery was ever made, and no rolls were ever furnished. On the capture of a town by a Rebel cavalry raid, the command remained long enough to take the parole of unarmed citizens there, and then decamped, leaving the paroled men behind, and forwarding the paroles to Richmond. And the Rebels had the assurance to require the United States Government to exchange prisoners legitimately captured in battle for such paroles as these.

On the 25th of November, 1862, I offered to send immediately to City Point 12,000 or more Confederate prisoners to be exchanged for Union soldiers confined in the South. This proposition was distinctly and unequivocally refused by Mr. Ould. And why? Because the damnable plans of the Rebel Government in relation to our poor captured soldiers had not been fully carried out. Let Mr. Ould leave the truth of history to take care of itself, and vindicate, if he can, the intentional, premeditated, and barbarous treatment by the Rebel authorities of our soldiers in the Rebel prison pens. When in 1864 the hellish plan was almost consummated, and they held as prisoners thousands of loathsome skeletons, let him confess that then his emasculated Government was willing to let the United States authorities bury its dead, in exchange for a fresh and healthy army of 60,000 men, to be immediately put in the field against General Grant.

To conclude, Messrs. Editors, these and these alone were the causes which prevented the exchange of prisoners, and these causes were in operation until the close of the war. The difficulties in the way were insurmountable, and were so looked upon by the United States authorities. General Grant had no more power to overcome them than any officer who preceded him. He took the only means in his power to effect the release of our prisoners, and in 1865 succeeded in accomplishing his purpose, much to the disgust, no doubt, of such patriotic vindicators of the "truth of history" as Mr. Robert Ould.

Yours, very truly, S. A. MEREDITH,

Late Brigadier-General and United States Commissioner for Exchange of Prisoners.

Buffalo, Aug. 25, 1868.

A Southern Opinion of Northern Democrats.

When the Charleston Mercury printed the annexed picture of the Northern Democracy, its managers felt quite sure that the party which it thus maligned, would swallow any amount of abusive denunciation, if sugar-coated with an expectation of recovering lost power. What do our German and Irish voters think of the character thus given to them by their brother Democrats at Charleston? Read!

Our women are all conservative, moral, religious and sensitively modest, and abhor the North for its infidelity, gross immorality, licentiousness, anarchy and agrarianism. 'Tis they and the clergy who lead and direct the disunion movement. It is a gross mistake to suppose that Abolition alone is the cause of dissension between the North and the South. The Cavaliers, Jacobites and Huguenots, who settled the South, naturally hate, contemn and despise the Puritans who settled the North. The former are master races—the latter a slave race, and the descendants of the Saxon serfs.

We are the most aristocratic people in the world. Pride of caste, and color, and privilege makes every white man an aristocrat in feeling. Aristocracy is the only safeguard of liberty, the only power watchful and strong enough to exclude monarchical despotisms. At the North, the progress and tendency of opinion is to pure democracy less government, anarchy, and agrarianism. Military despotism is far preferable to Northern democracy, agrarianism, infidelity, and free love.

Our enemies, the stupid, sensual, ignorant masses of the North, who are as foolish as they are depraved, could not read the signs of the times, did not dream of disunion, but rushed on as heedlessly as a greedy drove of hungry hogs, at the call of their owners. They were promised plunder, and find a famine; promised bread, and were given a stone. Our enemies were starving and disorganized. The cold, naked, hungry masses are at war with their leaders. They are mute, paralyzed, panic stricken, and have no plan of action for the future.

Better, a thousand times better, to come under the dominion of free negroes or of Gypsies, than of Yankees, or low Germans or Canadians. Gypsies and free negroes have many amiable, noble and generous traits; the Yankees, sour-crout Germans, filthy, whisky-drinking Irish, and Canadians have none. Senator Wade says, and Seward too, that the North will absorb Canada. They are half true; the vile, sensual, animal, brutal, infidel, superstitious Democracy of Canada and the Yankee States will coalesce; and Senator Johnson of Tennessee will join them. But when Canada and Western New York, and New England, and the whole beastly, puritanic, "sour-crout," free-negro, filthy, whisky-drinking Irish, infidel, superstitious, licentious, Democratic population of the North become masters of New York—what then? Out of the city, the state of New York is Yankee and puritanical, composed of as base, unprincipled, superstitious, licentious, and agrarian and anarchical population as any on earth. Nay, we do not hesitate to say, it is the vilest population on earth.

OIL FOR PRESERVING CIDER.—When a barrel of cider is tapped it grows hard, that is, more and more acid, until it gets too hard to drink, if it is kept long on tap. This is occasioned by the air, which fills the cask above the cider as soon as it is drawn out. The air cannot be excluded, even if the cask were air-tight, because the cider will not run from the tap if there is no air to press it out. If the cider is exposed long to air, it will become vinegar. In fact, the way to make vinegar of cider is to expose it to the air as much as possible. To prevent the cider on tap from becoming acid, it is recommended, as soon as one or two gallons are drawn out, to pour into the bung-hole about a half pint of clear sperm oil, or sweet oil if it is preferred. It should be warm when poured in, and it will spread in a thin coat over the surface, and keep spreading as the cider is drawn out, and thus exclude the air, without giving any taste of oil to the cider. The plan of preserving cider is worthy of farther attention. We have faith in it from knowing that oil casks are the best we know of for storing cider, imparting no flavor. Sperm oil casks are more valuable for cider casks than for any other purpose.

☞General Grant, after twenty-two years of army life, is said to have never uttered a profane word nor had a personal quarrel.

The Intelligence of Insects and Fishes

Ernest Mensalt, a new champion for the intelligence of animals, has revived the discussion in a book full of facts and inferences which, if not all new, are to the point. We take an example or two of what the smallest and dullest of them—fleas and fish—can do:—

There were industrious fleas before our time. Baron Walckenaer (who died in 1452), saw with his own eyes, for sixpense, in the Place de la Bourse, Paris, four learned fleas perform the manual exercise, standing upright on their hind legs, with a splinter of wood to serve as a pike. Two other fleas dragged a golden carriage, with a third flea holding a whip on the box for coachman. Another pair dragged a cannon. The flea horses were harnessed by a golden chain fastened to their hind legs, which was never taken off. They had lived in this way two years and a half, without any mortality among them, when Walckenaer saw them. They took their meals on their keeper's arm. Their feats were performed on a plate of polished glass. When they were sulky and refused to work, the man, instead of whipping them held a bit of lighted charcoal over their backs, which very soon brought them to their senses.

But of what use is cleverness without a heart? The flea has strong maternal affections. She lays her eggs in the crannies of floors, in the bedding of animals, and on babies' nightclothes. When the helpless, transparent larvæ appear, the mother flea feeds them as the dove does its young, by discharging into their mouths the contents of her stomach. Grudge her not, therefore, one small drop of blood; for you it is nothing but a flea-bite; for her it is the life of her beloved offspring.

While pleading, however, for the flea, we cannot do as much for the bug, though he is gifted with fuller developed intelligence. An inquisitive gentleman, wishing to know how the bug became aware of human presence, tried the following experiment:—He got into a bed suspended from the ceiling without any tester, in the middle of an unfurnished room. He then placed on the floor a bug, which guided, probably, by smell, pondered the means of reaching the bed. After deep reflection, it climbed up the wall, travelled straight across the ceiling to the spot immediately over the bed, and dropped plump on the observer's nose. Was this, or was it not, an act of intelligence?

The Fish belongs to the great Flathead family. The same sort of platitude which you see in his person doubtless extends to the whole of his character. You have met him somewhere in human shape, one of these pale faced wishy-washy gentlemen, whose passions have extinguished all heart and feeling. You often find them in diplomatic regions, and can't tell whether they are fish or flesh.—But if their mental powers are less developed, their term of existence is more extended. They gain in longevity what they lose in warmth of temperament.

Nevertheless, the skill with which the stickleback constructs his nest is now a matter of natural history. Other fishes display an address which we acquire only by long and constant practice. One fellow with a muzzle prolonged into a narrow tube (which he uses as a popgun), prowls about the banks of the tidal rivers. On spying a fly on the water weeds, he slyly swims up till he gets with five or six feet of it. He then shoots it with water from his probocis, never failing to bring down his game. A Governor of the hospital at Batavia, doubting the fact, though attested by creditable witnesses, procured some of these fish to watch their pranks. He stuck a fly on a pin at the end of a stick, and placed it so as to attract their notice. To his great delight, they shot it with their water-guns, for which he rewarded them with a treat of insects.

The pike has proved himself not only intelligent, but even capable—disbelieving it who will—of gratitude.

"While living at Durham," says Dr. Warwick, "I took a walk one evening in Lord Stamford's park. On reaching a pond in which fish were kept ready for use, I observed a fine pike of some six pounds weight. At my approach he darted away like an arrow. In his hurry he knocked his head against an iron hook fixed in a post in the water, fracturing his skull and injuring the optic nerve on one side of his head.—He appeared to suffer terrible pain; he plunged into the mud, floundered hither and thither, and at last leaping out of the water, fell on the bank. On examination a portion of the brain was seen protruding through the fractured skull.

"This I carefully restored to its place, making use of a small silver toothpick to raise the splinters of broken bone. The fish remained quiet during the operation; when it was over he plunged into the pond. At first, his sufferings appeared to be relieved; but in the course of a few minutes he began rushing right and left until he again leaped out of the water.

"I called the keeper, and with his assistance applied a bandage to the fracture. That done, we restored him to the pond, and left him to his fate. Next morning, as soon as I reached the water's edge, the pike swam to meet me quite close to the bank, and laid his head upon my foot. I thought this an extraordinary proceeding.—Without further delay I examined the wound, and found it was healing nicely. I then strolled for some time by the side of the pond. The fish swam after me, following my steps and turning as I turned.

"The following day I brought a few young friends with me to see the fish. He swam towards me as before. Little by little he became so tame so as to come to my whistle, and eat out of my hand. With other persons, on the contrary, he continued as shy and wild as ever."

"Lacrosse"—New Rival of Base Ball.

Base ball now has its rival—"Lacrosse," an Indian game, which has lately become popular outside of aboriginal circles. Its enthusiastic adherents claim that it is destined to wipe from the face of America every vestige of base ballism. It commenced at Chicago and is fast making its way Eastward. The sport is far more exciting than that of base ball, for the reason that it requires more players, and greater activity and skill. There are twelve players on each sides. Two flags are placed six feet apart on staffs six feet high, and at a distance of one hundred and eighty yards two corresponding flags are fixed. The playing takes place between these two points. A small sponge India rubber ball is used. The object of the players is to drive the ball between the two flags of the opposing sides; and the men are stationed so that this can be done only by great skill and dexterity. To protect the goal there is a goal keeper between the flags, who has the defense of the ground six feet in front of him, on which no player has a right to intrude, unless while in the act of trying to drive the ball between the flags. Twelve feet from the goal is the "point" man, whose duty it is to keep the ball away; and twelve feet further the "cover-point" man is stationed for a like purpose. Opposite the "point" man is placed one of the players of the opposite side, known as the "home" man, whose duty it is to knock the ball between the flags if it comes within his reach. The arrangement at the opposite side of the field is the same. The fielders are stationed at intervals in the centre of the field. Two of these men, whose duty it is to start the ball, are known as "facers." The instrument used in this game is known as a "crosse." It has a slightly curved handle, with a large hook at the end, nearly the shape of a horse shoe. This is covered with tight network, and is used not only to strike the ball but to catch and carry it.

The game consists of three points out of five, and it frequently requires three or four hours to play it in. Many tricks and cunning devices are resorted to for the purpose of putting the ball between the antagonists' flags.

BURNING THE DEAD.—A letter from Japan says: The burning of the dead is largely practiced among the Japanese, and of the thirty-five different forms of worship practiced here—all equally false—but two demand burial in preference to incremation. My acquaintance with their mode of burying the dead is limited to two funerals, which casually came before my notice. On one occasion I was returning from a walk, and my path led beside one of the little cemeteries near Kobt, in which a small party was gathered. It was the hour of sunset, a fitting time for an event of tender sorrow. The mourners were dressed entirely in white, which contrasted with the gaudy robes of a small group of priests.—The corpse, in its enclosure, lay upon a bier, and an offering of green rice and of flowers was made as though to the manes of the dead. Then came the beating of bells and the clang of cymbals. The receptacle which contained the corpse was shaped like a half-barrel, and in this the dead was placed in a sitting posture, and all vacant places were filled with combustibles. The friends now all gathered round it and commenced a low, plaintive chant, so monotonous that it seemed merely the repetition of a name, which I suppose to have been that of one of their deities. They then separated, and only a few remained to attend to the final service. The receptacle or coffin was placed over a stone trough and covered with a heap of fuel. All gathered in a close circle, and the nearest of kin (in this instance a wife) applied the torch, and as the flames ascended the monotonous chant and the sound of cymbals were renewed in mournful concert.

Excessive grief was decently restrained, except in the case of a little boy about ten years, who wept piteously, and was taken aside to be comforted. The group broke, and one after the other departed, leaving the wife above referred to alone, the image of sorrow, and unable to tear herself from the ashes of her husband.

PARTINGTONIAN.—A man in Maine, who would have made a very good mate for Mrs. Partington, had a wife whom he loved very dearly, and who one night was taken ill. Partington got his old mare as quickly as possible, and without stopping to saddle put off as fast as she would go. Arriving at Doctor Tripp's both horse and man out of breath, he screamed out as loud as he could: "Doctor, Doctor Tripp! I want you to postpone to my house with all possible delay. My wife is irrecoverable from head to foot, and I don't expect her to live from one end to tother"

☞The Grant batteries were opened in Vermont. Let us keep up the fire along the whole line.

☞Just five weeks remain for working for the ticket. Republicans and Union men, are you doing your whole duty? Work! Work! WORK!

☞We will hear from Maine on the 14th day of this month. We will be greatly mistaken if we don't hear of another glorious victory for Grant.

☞We will try to accommodate all—continue to send in names, in clubs or singly. The money refunded whenever a subscriber is dissatisfied with the Globe. Only 25 cents until the 18th of November.

☞"The Democratic platform says "equal taxation of every species of property." The Republican Legislature of this State, took off the taxes from real estate; but the Democrats say tax it. Farmers, what do you think of this.

☞Remember, every vote lost to our State and County ticket in October, will be a loss to Grant and Colfax in November. As goes the State in October so goes the State in November—and as goes the State so goes the Union. Work.

☞Vermont, after a heavy battle, speaks for peace. Her majority is the beginning of a series of peace victories. Let them come. Pennsylvania must not be behind. Old Huntingdon will do her full share of the labor. Nothing short of a thousand.

☞"Every election that has been held since Mr. Seymour was nominated has resulted in a Democratic triumph."—Johnstown Democrat.

Have you heard the news from Vermont—only seven thousand of a gain for the Union Republican party.

☞"Let us have peace," says Gen. Grant—and where is there a soldier or civilian who sufforod during the war, not ready to say amen to Gen. Grant's desire, and vote for him as the only certain way to make sure a permanent peace.

☞There was a time when a man could be a neutral or no party man, but for the life of us we cannot see how any man can be neutral now when the Rebel leaders have candidates in the field for President and Vice President.

LET THE BIG GUN BURST!!

"We Will Fight it Out on This Line."

THE VERMONT ELECTION O. K!

GRANT Leads the COLUMN!

A GAIN OF 7,000 MAJORITY!

Vermont held her election on the 3d inst, for State officers, Congressmen, Legislature, etc., Governor, John G. Page; Lt. Governor, Stephen Thomas; State Treasurer, John A. Page. All the Republican Congressmen elected. The Senate is unanimous Republican. But two or three members of the House are Democrats. Last year the State went Republican by 20,000—this year the majorities for State officers run from 27,000 to 28,000. All hail Vermont! The first engagement of the great battle of 1868 has been fought, and Grant wins hugely.

VERMONT.—Burlington, Sept. 5.—Complete returns from all but six small towns, give Page a majority of 26,774. The six towns not heard from gave two hundred Republican majority last year. Therefore Gov. Page's majority will be about 27,000.

Republican Gain in Little Delaware.

A municipal election was held in Wilmington, on the 1st., which resulted in an increased majority for the Republicans. So it will be everywhere where there is a full turn out of the voters. Grant and Colfax are for peace.

☞"Let us have a change. A change can do no harm."—Harrisburg Patriot

The change proposed by Blair would be the bloody times we had during the war. Such a change the people do not want and will vote for Grant and Colfax to prevent.

☞The War Democrats everywhere, almost to a man, are rallying under the banner of Grant and Colfax. They can't rally under Vallandigham and the leaders of the Rebel army. They can't see that the success of such men would add to the peace and prosperity of the country.

☞In his message to the Senate, in December 1867, President Johnson said: "Salutary reforms have been introduced by the Secretary ad interim, (General Grant,) and great reduction of expenses have been effected under his administration of the War Department, to the savings of millions to the Treasury."

☞Friends, do not cease working because of the triumphant majority in Vermont. Remember that it will require earnest working to carry Pennsylvania—*first for Hartranft and Camp*bell, and next for Grant and Colfax. Your hearts are cheered, but don't forget to help give just as good an account from the old Keystone.

☞In a private letter from Richmond, Va., the writer says: "If you fail to elect Gen. Grant, you may prepare to receive largely of the negro population. It will be impossible for them to live here in peace. I have already been told if Seymour is elected I will have to leave Richmond.—Loyal men have not been so badly used since the war as now."

MAKE YOUR CHOICE.—Two tickets are before you—Grant and Colfax, and Seymour and Blair. Grant and Colfax were nominated by the people who stood true to the country during the war. Seymour and Blair were nominated by Rebel leaders and their organization. Make your choice, voters, and make it in the ticket you will vote at the October election.

☞The greenbacks put in circulation by the Democratic State Committee wont buy bread for the poor men who are expected to be deceived by them. Perhaps they are as good as government greenbacks would be if Wade Hampton & Co should be successful in defeating Grant and the Union party. Confederate money may be as good as our greenbacks if the Rebels are not defeated in their purpose.

☞We are warned by the Democratic party itself that its triumph means war; that it intends that Blair and Seymour shall establish the principles of the Confederacy. That warning it would be criminal folly to despise. It is Grant who represents in this contest the great cause which he represented in the war, and only by his election can peace and order be preserved and permanently established.

☞The debt of Pennsylvania is now $33,641,637 48. In 1860 it was $37,696,847 50. These figures are facts which Democrats should contemplate when they talk about Pennsylvania extravagance. Besides this reduction of over $4,000,000, the taxes have been reduced at least twenty-five per cent., while that on real estate has been entirely removed. Remember Hartranft and Campbell in October next for these blessings.

☞Wallace expects his Democratic friends to carry the State, not by remaining idle, but by working all the time. Republicans will remember this, and also work to prevent a loss of a single vote. While we may have hundreds to spare on the county offices, a very few votes may elect our members to the Legislature and State ticket. Poll every vote. The Democrats are working quietly and often while Republicans are enjoying a sound sleep.

☞Attend the public meetings if possible, but don't fail to be at the polls in October.

The Democratic Rebellion.

The successive steps, by which the Democratic programme for another civil war is to be executed, were significantly foreshadowed by Blair when in his Broadhead letter, he declared that the existing Southern State governments can only be overthrown by the authority of the Executive and the army at his back. How this is to be accomplished is more minutely set forth in the annexed extract, from Harper's Weekly, which shows precisely the inevitable results of the election of the Democratic candidates:

"How a Democratic success at the election would occasion a civil war is easily seen. General Blair does not hesitate to avow it. Congress must be wholly disregarded. The Supreme Court must not be invoked. The President must usurp all power of government and act alone. He must be a Cæsar. 'Because,' says General Blair in his letter "if the President elect by the Democracy enforces, or permits others to enforce, these Reconstruction acts, the radicals, by the accession of twenty spurious senators and fifty representatives, will control both branches of Congress, and his administration will be as powerless as the present one of Mr. Johnson.' Force is, therefore, the only alternative.

"If Mr. Seymour be elected after this loud and reiterated declaration by his party that his election will mean forcible overthrow of the present State governments in the Southern States, the result is evident. He would officially declare these governments void. He would then be impeached and probably convicted; but the Democratic party, victorious at the polls, with the whole rebel force jubilant and ready, would dispute the sentence and rise against its execution. Meanwhile in the Southern States the new Democratic State organizations summoned by the President, would be formed. They would dispute the State authority with the present incumbents. The President would recognize the new claimants and order the army to their support, and to 'trample in the dust' the others. They in turn would appeal to Congress, already engaged in conflict with the President. Meanwhile the Representatives and Senators from the new State organizations would arrive in Washington, and in concert with the other Democratic members would be recognized as Congress by the President. But, indeed, long before this event, civil war would be ravaging the country, and Wade Hampton, and Robert Toombs, and Howell Cobb, and the old rebel chiefs who say with Albert Pike, 'We do not love and will not pretend to love that Union, though we have agreed to obey the laws of the conqueror,' would gladly behold in a desolating war and a ruined republic the fullness of their revenge."

Who Made the Platform?

Not Hampton alone, although according to his own showing, he "obtained all he asked in the Convention." He had fifteen able assistants to help him, in the work of securing "all they fought for." They were sixteen in all, those rebel Generals who made the platform, not to mention eight or nine rebel Colonels and a sprinkling of Majors and Captains. Glance at the list. Hampton, who like Beauregard, wanted to shoot Union prisoners, and who slunk away sullenly and refused to give his parole; Buckner who journeyed back and forth to Washington, in search of a position in the Union army two weeks before he declared for rebellion; Preston who gave up his mission to the Spanish Court, in order that he might fan the flames of rebellion, and signalized himself by fitting out piratical vessels; Holtzclow, who boasted that he took part in every western battle from Shiloh to the bitter end; Forrest, the hero of Fort Pillow; Bonham, of South Carolina; Gordon, of Georgia; Hoke, Ransom and Cox, of South Carolina, bitter opponents to an exchange of prisoners; Ould, the evil genius of Andersonville, Salisbury and Belle Isle; Kershaw, of South Carolina, who shot down with his own hand Union prisoners, and strove to rival Forrest; these and a host of others, equally distinguished for their atrocities, assisted at the birth of the Tammany platform, upon which they have signified their intention to risk another trial, gaining everything if they win, and losing nothing if they fail.

These are the men who made the Democratic platform. Two-thirds of them are pre-eminently infamous, and all are traitors at heart to-day, as they were when they exhausted every conceivable device to overthrow the Government. And these men who controlled the Democratic Convention hug the delusion that they have got a chance to control the Government—But their present cunning will avail them even less than their former atrocities.—Pittsburg Commercial.

☞Probably the truth as to Grant, and the duty of conscientious men in the present political contest, has not been better put than by Henry Ward Beecher in a recent letter, in which he wrote as follows:

I regard Grant as an upright, honest man, of good administrative skill—the very man to be President in times which require steadiness, clear sense, kindness and tried patriotism. I not only believe that he will be President, but that his civil administration will be as remarkable as his military career. Since all the men who sought to destroy this Government are rallying around Seymour, it is fit that all the men who stood up for the Union should gather about Grant. It is an honor that will not happen twice in a man's lifetime to have a chance to vote for such a man as Grant. No young man can well afford to throw away his chance. Even if done, it ought to be in favor of some better man than he who, through all the years from 1860 to 1868, studied how to help Southern treason without incurring the risks and pains of overt and courageous treasonable acts.

"Let us have Peace."—Grant. B—ly for the man of few words, but heavy action.

Vermont has spoken in thunder tones for Grant and Peace.

Some Hard Hits.

Hon. Isaac N. Morris of Quincy, Ill., an old line Democrat, who has been compelled to abandon that party on account of revolutionary tendency, has written a letter to Frank Blair, from which we make the following extracts:

The first inquiry which naturally arises is: Why was the nomination of the New York Convention conferred upon you? Why were all the Democrats of the West passed by that you might be selected? Not certainly because of your Democracy. If you ever were a Democrat you were the worst acting one I ever saw. But you never were a Democrat, and have spent your whole life in abusing the Democratic party. You do not now claim to be a Democrat—only an opponent of the "radicals," the reason for which will appear in the sequel.

If the opponents of the Democratic party have always been wrong, as you now allege, and the Democratic party has always been right, why have you always acted on the wrong side? Why has your whole life been spent in denouncing the Democratic party? Why did you and the "Blair family" enter the Van Buran movement of '48, and assist in defeating Gen. Cass, the regular nominee of that party? Why did you, in your speech at Lafayette, Indiana, in 1860, denounce Democrats as the "most miserable party that existed," and Douglas as the "most pernicious demagogue in the United States?" Why did you do the same thing in this city, and every other place where you spoke? Why did you recommend "Helper's Impending Crisis," a work which was generally condemned in the North, and which spread terror and consternation in the South? Why were you so long and apparently so earnestly engaged in overthrowing the slave power of the country and liberating the negro? If what you now say of his barbarism is true, your efforts heretofore in his behalf are frauds and lies. Your purpose, General, is too plain to deceive anyone. You desire to re-establish the slave power of the country, and to lay the North at its feet. If this can be done peaceably, which you say you do not believe, well. If it requires a revolution to effect it, you say let the revolution come. When it does come, you will be the Robespiero of it. Alas for your ambition, it has o'erleaped itself!

THE SOLDIERS FOR GRANT.—A call for a meeting in Pittsburg in support of Grant, was signed by Democratic and Republican soldiers. We quote the following patriotic words in the call:

"A true Union soldier can never become a mere party man. Realizing this, the undersigned addresses this call to their fellow-soldiers, not in behalf of a political party or its nominees, but in behalf of the peace and prosperity of our nation, which are again threatened. Had the Democratic party spurned the dictation of Wade Hampton and his co-traitors, and offered us a loyal, honest, Union platform, with Hancock or some other candidate having a good war record, some of the undersigned would not have joined in issuing this call. But with such a platform and ticket, championed by Wade Hampton, Forrest, Cobb, Semmes, Wise, Toombs, and other like traitors, we cannot hesitate as to our course. To say that the threats of these known enemies of the Union mean nothing, is worse than folly; they proved themselves terribly in earnest before, and we have every reason to believe they are equally so now. Regarding this contest as a renewal of that we helped to decide in the field, we have once more laid aside all party feeling, and have re-enlisted under the noble soldier who led us to victory after others had failed. Gen. Grant is not and cannot become a party man. He is a true, earnest, faithful friend to the Union. The Republican party cannot claim him; though the nominee of that party, he is, in fact, the candidate of the true Union men of the nation, just as Horatio Seymour is the candidate of the Southern traitors, Hampton, Forrest, Semmes & Company, though nominally the Democratic candidate."

Grant and the Cotton Traders.

Some of the Democratic papers recently accused General Grant of having in 1862, at the instance and for the profit of his father, given to a Cincinnati firm, Mack & Brothers, a special privilege to trade in cotton. But Mr. Henry Macks, in a recent lawsuit stated under oath that General Grant refused his firm this special privilege, and that Grant used these words:

"I am always pleased, sir, to render any proper assistance in my power to my friends; but I am a General of the army of the United States Government, and I cannot discriminate between its citizens. I do not know why my father should write asking such a favor. It can have no influence with me. The request is improper, as it would give one advantage over another, and would lead to that demoralization which it is my endeavor to prevent. The attention of the military cannot be diverted from the work in hand, viz: saving the country. You can take out a permit and trade along the river, as others are doing, and I shall be pleased to hear of your success."

That, we hope, will put an end to this slander, which, however, has had but a poor run, for it was difficult to persuade the people that Grant was guilty of corruption. His whole record in the war is that of an honest, patriotic and unselfish soldier.

☞The Democrats North and the rebels South, are building high hopes of the election of Seymour and Blair. Union men, is it not enough to prompt you to redoubled efforts for the success of Grant and Colfax, when you see such a mixture opposed to you?

☞Gen. John A. Dix, another War Democrat, declares for Grant and Colfax. This is not all. Hundreds of other War Democrats, who do not favor Radicalism, seeing the strait into which Seymour and Blair would lead *the country, are deserting the Demo*cratic colors.

Grant—Seymour—Blair.

[From the Cincinnati Gazette]

The Democratic candidate for the Vice-Presidency says General Grant is one of the ablest men this country ever produced. The most popular Presidential candidate of the Democrats, George H. Pendleton, says: "I would not, if I could, pluck one leaf from the laurels of General Grant. Whatever may be his capacity as a soldier, he has stood the test of success, and, so far as I have known, he has borne himself with moderation and magnanimity in his high office." The most conspicuous and odious representative of the Peace Democracy, Mr. Vallandigham, says he would not utter one syllable against the purity or capacity of General Grant.

Throughout the Democratic party there is an honorable unanimity on this subject. Only one of their leading journals disturbs their harmony. The New York World seems to imagine that the campaign can be won by slandering or ridiculing the candidates. Its standard name for the amiable Speaker of the House is Mr. Smiler Colfax. It rings the daily changes on the fact that General Grant's baptismal name was Hiram Ulysses. It sneers at his capacity, and devotes column after column to elaborate criticisms of what it calls his military blunders.—We have not the remotest disposition to interfere with this indulgence. In fact, we hope to see it continued. But for those who care to see how circumstances alter cases with able journals that are not troubled with any such awkward accessories as convictions, we quote the World's opinion of Gen. Grant before he was nominated for the Presidency by the Republicans.—In its issue of the 11th of April, 1865, it said:

"General Grant's last brilliant campaign sets the final seal upon his reputation. It stamps him as the superior of his able antagonist, as well as of all the commanders who have served with or under him in the great campaigns of last year.

"General Grant's history should teach us to discriminate better than we Americans are apt to do, between glitter and solid worth.—Our proneness to run after demagogues and spouters may find a wholesome corrective in the study of such a character as his. The qualities by which great things are accomplished are here seen to have no necessary connection with showy and superficial accomplishments. When the mass of men look upon such a character, they may learn a truer respect for themselves and each other; they are taught by it that high qualities and great abilities are consistent with the simplicity of taste, contempt for parade and plainness of manners with which direct and earnest men have a strong natural sympathy. Ulysses Grant, the tanner, Ulysses Grant, the unsuccessful applicant for the post of City Surveyor of St. Louis, Ulysses Grant, the driver into that city of his two horse team with a load of wood to sell, had within him every manly quality which will cause the name of Lieutenant General Grant to live forever in history. His career is a lesson in practical democracy; it is a quiet satire on the dandyism, the puppyism and the shallow affectation of our fashionable exquisites, as well as upon the swagger of our plausible, glib-tongued demagogues."

It is barely possible that the World did not mean to refer to Horatio Seymour or General Frank P. Blair in its sneers at the "swagger of our plausible glib-tongued demagogues," as contrasted with the quiet lesson in practical democracy taught by Gen. Grant's career. But it is not possible for any one to read the article now without perceiving the admirable application.

Seymour and "These Bonds."

Horatio Seymour delivered a speech on financial questions before the Democratic State Convention, at Albany, in January last. Talking of the public debt and taxation, he said:

"It is a mistake to suppose that the bonds are mostly held by capitalists.—Large sums belonging to children and widows under the order of the courts, or the action of trustees, have been invested in Government bonds. The vast amounts held by Life and Fire insurance Companies and savings banks, are, in fact, held in trust for, and are the reliance of the great body of active business and laboring men or women, or of widows and orphans. The savings banks of this State, are the depositaries of the poor, or of persons of limited means, hold about $60,000,000 of Government bonds. The whole amount held in the State of New York, in the various forms of trust, will not fall below $200,000,000. If we look into other States we shall see that only a small share of these bonds are held by men known as capitalists.—But they belong in fact, if not in form, to the business, the active and laboring members of society. The destruction of these securities would make a wide spread ruin and distress which would reach into every workshop and every home however humble. * * * Whatever our views may be, the payment of this debt will fall upon the future. Do what we may, a generation that will come after us, will decide its mode of payment and without regard to anything that we may say. The depressed industry of our land, its suffering labor, demand that the load of taxation be lightened. There is a perfect accord in the Democratic ranks as to the policy, and need of honesty and economy; but there is more difference of opinion as to the construction of the contract with the public creditor.—Some hold that it is right, and that it is due to the tax payers, that we should save what we can by paying the principal of the debt in currency; but they underrate the force of their own arguments. It is a mistake to suppose that the interests of the bondholder and tax payers are antagonistic. The fact is overlooked that in order to make any saving by giving the bondholder a debased and worthless paper we would bring upon ourselves disaster and dishonor. It means that we are to give to the laborer for his toil a base currency; it means that the honor of our country shall be stained; it means that our business shall be kept in uncertainty and confusion; it means that the laboring man shall suffer by the increased cost of the comforts of life; it means that the tax payers shall be burdened by a Government proved to be corrupt and imbecile by this very depreciation of its money.—We can't afford to speculate upon the Nation's honor at so fearful a cost.

Cincinnati papers report that the whole Johnson party in that city and county has gone over to Grant and Colfax; its organ announces itself as Republican, and the leaders do the same

Political Chip Basket.

Ex-Gov. Curtin spoke for Grant and Colfax at a meeting at Doylestown last week. Andy is a full team.

Brick Pomeroy, in his New York Democrat, puts it frankly when he says: "If Democratic editors in the years past had been truer to principle and less hungry for contracts and official patronage, the war would have been shorter, the national debt less, and the land more peaceful and prosperous."

The Southern Democrats have the correct view of the Democratic ticket. They rarely or never mention Seymour at all. Everything is Blair.—Their organizations are called "Blair Knights," "Blair Sentinels," "Blair Guards," etc. But none of them bear Seymour's name. What does it mean? Do they expect, if they should be successful, that Blair will occupy the Presidential chair? What then? War, more bloodshed, and more taxes.

In a recent speech Wade Hampton said: "The old Government was honored at home, and respected abroad; taxation was light, and plenty blessed the land." If this were so, then why did Hampton wage a furious, bloody and protracted war to destroy "the old Government?" Those whom he and his associates now traduce gave half a million of lives and five thousand millions of money to preserve that government. These Southern gentlemen should know that the people of the North estimate at its real value their present solicitude for the honor of the "old Government." The advice they are so lavishly tendering in the pending campaign is not relished by loyal men of either party. If they really desire the election of Seymour, prudence if not modesty would bow them to the rear. They don't look well in front.

And rendering it dark and glossy. No other compound possesses the peculiar properties which so exactly suit the various conditions of the human hair. The use of this oil as a hair dresser has been universal in every section of the country in the Spanish Main for centuries.—No preparation of art could give that elegant luxuriance and abundance of hair which have so often been the admiration of travelers in Spain. This oil is highly and delicately perfumed, forming an article unrivaled in excellence and upon which the Spanish people for many years have set its seal of enduring approval.

J. SIMPSON AFRICA, Secretary.

Sands, the Prestidigitateur.

Prof. Sands, the Prestidigitateur, ventriloquist and exposer of all mysterious humbugs, will exhibit in the Court House, in this borough on Tuesday and Wednesday evenings of this week. Prof. Sands has a world-wide celebrity, and the feats which he performs are not equaled by any other performer traveling. Indeed, so wonderful has he appeared that he has been taken for a spiritual medium, as will be seen by the following extract which we take from the Xonia Torch-light.

"The Professor is to be thanked for his services in behalf of all those who believe what they see, and are ready to back up their belief with their money or embrace whatever mysterious explanation that may be given—spiritual or otherwise. The Prof. scouts the idea of the agency of spirits, though it must be confessed that, if his 'sands of life are nearly run out' as has been affirmed of him, he may have communication with the other world. Indeed the spiritualists stoutly affirm their belief that he has."

Spirit or no spirit, we have no doubt that he will have large audiences each night. Let every one go and see for themselves. Admittance 35 cents, children 25 cents.

Fire in Lewistown.

On Sunday evening, just as services were about commencing in the churches an alarm of fire was raised, followed by a bright light, which speedily brought the major part of the population to the scene. It originated in S. Yocum's stable, on the alley leading from Grand to Juniata street, in a short time extended to Nighthart's, and thence to Mrs. Smith's and Benedict's, all of which were destroyed, the last being partly pulled down. One of Yocum's horses was burnt. Nighthart's was insured for $165, Yocum's for $75, though it is doubtful whether the last can be recovered. The property in the neighborhood was saved by the close watch kept, but had the evening been windy, nothing could have saved the houses on Grand st., as the reservoir has but little head.—Lewistown Gazette.

The Meetings.

We were present at an enthusiastic Grant Club meeting at Scottsville on Friday evening last. The hall was filled with ladies and gentlemen The meeting was addressed by M. S. Lytle, S. T. Brown and H. C. Weaver. The Club is one of the most active in the county. Clay is O. K. for a handsome Union Republican majority.

We were also present at a large and spirited township meeting at Shirleysburg on Saturday evening. It was held in front of Judge Leas' store, and was addressed by M. S. Lytle, K. A. Lovell, S. T. Brown and Gen. John Williamson. Gen. John threw heavy hot shot into the ranks of the enemy and waked up the natives generally. The Union Republicans of Shirley are wide awake and will do their duty.

A Horse and Buggy Stolen.

A horse and buggy were stolen from Wm. Bricker, of this place, on Monday evening the 31st ult., by a stranger who pretended to hire for a short drive. The horse is clean limbed, branded on the left shoulder with the letters U. S, and C. above them, and W. M. under the mane. On the left corner of the buggy or box behind, there was a square piece of three or four inches broken out. The harness was breast strap. Editors in adjoining counties will confer a special favor by giving notice of the theft.

The Legislature of New York at its last session passed a law, giving the trustees of cemeteries power to levy a tax not exceeding five dollars a year on the owners of plots, for the purpose of improving and keeping the grounds in repair, provided that two thirds of the plot owners give their consent to such tax.

Miraculous Escape

The Harrisburg State Guard of the 3d says: "Yesterday forenoon as the Day Express on the Pennsylvania Railroad was coming East, the mail agent on the train threw the mail bags out, as customary at Mount Union, a station on the road, but one failing to be caught, fell under the wheels, throwing the front passenger car off the track. In this position the car was dragged a distance of five hundred yards or more before it was discovered, and the passengers jolted and considerably frightened. The train was promptly checked just before reaching the bridge, and a disastrous and terrible calamity timely averted. Had the train reached the bridge the full extent of damages and loss of life cannot be estimated."

—The Mail bag which fell under the wheels contained the edition of Globes which we send to the lower end of the county. They were badly damaged. We understand that the whole edition of the Mt. Union Times on its way from the West, was cut to pieces.

Huntingdon Building Association.

An effort is now being made, by a number of our citizens to bring together a sufficient amount of force and influence, to have a building association organized in this place. One of the objects o this Association is to assist poor men of honest habits, to procure homes of their own. This is a worthy object, and whilst it would be a great blessing for those for whom it is designed, it would also be a source of profit for others. These associations are being formed in many places, and with the most beneficial results, and why not here? We think all rich and poor should take hold and prepare the preliminaries for an organization at the earliest moment. It can not fail to procure good results. A meeting will be held at the Court House, on Wednesday evening, (9th inst.,) at 7½ o'clock, to take the matter into consideration.

Druggists sell the Bittors.

Cambria county boasts of a village called Scalp Level. It received its name from a row that occurred there years ago, between a carpet-bagger from Somerset county and a party of German residents—the latter, while "going for" the "frosty son of thunder," yelled at every kick, "Scalp de devil!" The descendants of those Germans last week formed a Grant club there—which shows their scalps are level.

SPECIAL NOTICES.

PREDISPOSING CAUSES OF DISEASE.—The causes of disease are general and particular, affecting one or many persons. Now, as the condition of the body is easily disposed under a variety of circumstances to the action of disease, the importance of MISHLER'S HERB BITTERS as a means of combatting and overthrowing the predisposing cause is apparent. It is an invaluable antidote for the human system that is unfortunately affected with any epidemic virus; and such is its wonderful re-tlent power, that it effectually protects the physique against the evil tendency of an impoisoned atmosphere, or any morbid influence which predisposes the body to the reception of disease. It is, therefore, the true remedy for everyone, whose situation or surroundings are not favorable to the preservation of the health. Sold everywhere.

EXAMINATIONS.

THE annual examinations of Teachers for the present year may be expected as follows: Mount Union bor, Wednesday Sept. 9th, Mount Union. Shirley and Shirleysburg, Thursday 10th, Shirleysburg. Cromwell and Orbisonia bor, Friday 11th, Orbisonia Dublin, Saturday 12th, Shade Gap.

Tell, Monday 14th, Bellingertown.

Springfield, Tuesday 15th, Meadow Gap.

Clay, Wednesday 16th, Scottsville.

Cass and Carrville bor, Thursday 17, Carrville.

Union, Friday 18th, Pine Grove School House.

Juniata, Saturday 19th, Bell Crown School House.

The examination will commence at 9 o'clock, A. M. Teachers who are tardy in attendance need not expect admission into the class.

No teacher need apply for examination who will not submit to an examination in all the branches required by law.

Persons who are known to the Superintendent to use intoxicating drinks as a beverage, or to be of immoral character will not be examined. Those unknown to the Superintendent and directors must produce satisfactory evidence of good moral character.

Applicants are expected to be examined in the districts in which they apply for Schools. A certificate from the proper directors will be required before they can enter the class.

Directors are earnestly urged to be present at the examinations, and to make their selections of teachers, as far as practicable, on these occasions. Such a course would have a strong tendency to induce teachers to attend and prevent them from trying to evade a public examination. It would also relieve directors from much trouble in procuring teachers. It is hoped that those directors who favor the measure will give the requisite notices in their districts.

The special attention of directors is invited to the article headed "Teachers Salaries" found on page 46, Aug. No. Pennsylvania School Journal. It will be seen by the article referred to that the State Superintendent suggests that teachers be paid according to their proficiency, and according to their actual success in teaching. The article is most cordially commended.

The public are desired and respectfully invited to attend the examinations, but teachers who do not come to be examined but expect to be examined at some other place in the county are not invited, and if they will consult their own interests they will not attend.

D. F. TUSSEY, County Superintendent,
aug12,68. Huntingdon County.

REPUBLICAN PLATFORM.

First. We congratulate the country on the assured success of the reconstruction projects of Congress, as evinced by the adoption in a majority of the States lately in rebellion of constitutions securing equal civil and political rights to all, and regard it as the duty of the Government to sustain these institutions and to prevent the people of such States from being remitted to a state of anarchy.

Second. The guarantee of Congress of equal suffrage to all loyal men at the South was demanded by every consideration of public safety, of gratitude, and of justice, and must be maintained, while the question of suffrage in all the loyal States properly belongs to the people of those States.

Third. We denounce all forms of repudiation as a national crime, and national honor requires the payment of the public indebtedness in the utmost good faith to all creditors, at home and abroad, not only according to the letter but the spirit of the laws under which it was contracted.

Fourth. It is due to the labor of the nation that taxation should be equalized, and reduced as rapidly as the national faith will permit.

Fifth. The national debt, contracted as it has been for the preservation of the Union for all time to come, should be extended over a fair period for redemption, and it is the duty of Congress to reduce the rate of interest thereon whenever it can possibly be done.

Sixth. That the best policy to diminish our burden of debt is to so improve our credit that capitalists will seek to loan us money at lower rates of interest than we now pay, and must continue to pay so long as repudiation, partial or total, open or covert, is threatened or suspected.

Seventh. The Government of the United States should be administered with the strictest economy, and the corruptions which have been so shamefully nursed and fostered by Andrew Johnson call loudly for radical reform.

Eighth. We profoundly deplore the untimely and tragic death of Abraham Lincoln, and regret the accession of Andrew Johnson to the Presidency, who has acted treacherously to the people who elected him, and the cause he was pledged to support; has usurped legislative and judicial functions; has refused to execute the law; has used his high office to induce others to ignore and violate the laws; has employed his executive power to render insecure the prosperity, peace, liberty, and life of the citizens; has abused the pardoning power; has denounced the National Legislature as uncenstitutional; has persistently and corruptly resisted, by every measure in his power, every proper attempt at the reconstruction of the States lately in rebellion; has perverted the public patronage into an engine of wholesale corruption, and has been justly impeached for high crimes and misdemeanors, and properly pronounced guilty by the votes of thirty-five Senators.

Ninth. The doctrine of Great Britain and other European powers, that because a man is once a subject he is always so, must be resisted at every hazard by the United States as a relic of the Federal times, not authorized by the law of nations and at war with our national honor and independence. Naturalized citizens are entitled to be protected in all their rights of citizenship as though they were native born, and no citizen of the United States, native or naturalized, must be liable to arrest and imprisonment to any foreign power for acts done or words spoken in this country. And if so arrested and imprisoned, it is the duty of the Government to interfere in his behalf.

Tenth. Of all who were faithful in the trials of the late war there were none entitled to more especial honor than the brave soldiers and seamen who endured the hardships of campaign and cruise, and imperilled their lives in the service of the country. The bounties and pensions provided by law for these brave defenders of the nation are obligations never to be forgotten. The widows and orphans of the gallant dead are the wards of the people, a sacred legacy bequeathed to the nation's protecting care.

Eleventh. Foreign emigration, which in the past has added so much to the wealth and development of the resources and the increase of power to this nation, "the asylum of the oppressed of all nations," should be fostered and encouraged by a liberal and just policy.

Twelfth. This convention declares its sympathy with all the oppressed people who are struggling for their rights.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

TO THE LADIES.—Do you really intend to cease wearing the beautiful styles now so prevalent, or dress less elegantly, because the rebel Jeff. Davis, was captured in Fashionable Female attire? One moment's calm reflection will surely serve to change your rash resolve. The angels had too much good sense to lay aside their pure chaste robes of white, because they had for a time served to hide the deformities of that Prince of Rebels, the Devil. Can you err in following the example of Angels? Then having made up your minds that you will continue to dress tastefully regardless of rebelacts, do not forget to call at the store of the subscribers, who will be happy at all times to furnish you with such articles of dress as you may desire. Urge your faith, ers, husbands, brothers, neighbors and children to visit the same store. They can here be suited in good articles of Boots, Shoes, Clothing Material, Hats, Caps, Queensware and a general assortment of Groceries, on as reasonable terms as at any House in town. Store on fourth-east corner of the Diamond, Huntingdon, Pa.

IF A HUMBUG,

What a wonder
That the doors
Are open wide;
Ever since the
First of August
Thousands have Pain Paint applied.
Those who lie,
Or call it humbug,
Are the doctors,
Not acquaint;
For they always
Have been jealous
When their patients
Use Pain Paint.
Pile up facts
As high as mountains,
Flash the truth
Before their eyes,
But the cry
Is always humbug,
Men of science
Full of lies.

People know that liniments composed of Cayenne pepper, turpentine, hartshorn, ether, &c., will produce inflammation and pain. To purchase such trash to stop Pain and Inflammation is ridiculous. Fire will not stop heat; a dumb brute shuns the heat, and knows enough to wade in a pond of water, when wounded, to reduce, cool, and cure Inflammation and Fever.

Pimps and gamblers try to look honest, but folks can read the face too plainly. Some try to persuade the ignorant that pills, physic, &c., cleanse the blood, purge the system, and do a hundred other things equally absurd. Everybody knows that it is false, and that no medicine can purify or increase a drop of blood. Food makes blood, bone, and muscle, and is the staff of life. Every dose of medicine swallowed is rejected, and hurried out of the system as quick as possible. It is an enemy; yea, a deadly foe. Constipation, ill health, and weakness, are the result of dosing, dosing, dosing the stomach.—The living system has enough to do without working herself to death in expelling and kicking out the pernicious nostrums poured down the throat. Food she welcomes when she needs it; yea, asks for it. Let pill-makers and physic venders stop eating food, and see how long they can subsist on their blood-purifying, invigorating, health-giving medicines and cordials. What humbug is more transparent? A dog would feel so insulted, if offered a dose, he would curl his tail downward in scorn, and run away in utter disgust. All physical pain arises from inflammation. Put out the fire and you stop pain absolutely. You can stop pain as easy as you can quench fire with water. WOLCOTT'S PAIN PAINT subdues inflammation, heat, and fever one hundred times faster than ice. Thousands have had a practical test of its merits at the very moment of most extreme pain, and they can testify that it has not failed in doing its work. It is simple; it is harmless; it has no stain; it gives no smart; it is for sale by Druggists everywhere; and it is tested free of cost at 170 CHATHAM SQUARE, N. Y., and 623 Arch Street, Philadelphia.

My wife had an ulcer on her leg for thirteen years, caused by varicose veins, ulceration extended from her ankle to her knee, some places eating away to the bone. I have employed over twenty physicians at vast expense during this period. But all attempts at cure proved utterly abortive until I tried Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint, which the doctors told me was a humbug. But humbug or not, it has done the work completely in less than one month, removing the pain at the first application. I kept her leg wet with Pain Paint constantly until healed. I wish we had more humbugs as useful as Dr. Wolcott's Pain Paint. I am well known in this city, any person who wants to make further inquiry will call at 101 West Street, New York, at the Hanover House, of which I am the proprietor, and I think I can satisfy them as to the benefit derived by the use of Pain Paint.

May 12, 1868. PETER MINCK.

I am selling Wolcott's Pain Paint and Annihilator, and it certainly gives satisfaction to my customers.

D. F. COLE, Druggist, Rahway, N. J.

I am selling more of Wolcott's Pain Paint, than any other Patent Medicine. C. N. CRITTENTON, Wholesale Druggist, No. 7 6th Ave., New York.

I sell more of Wolcott's Pain Paint than all the other patent medicines combined and I keep a full supply of all that have any demand.
